

Let Me Know

Leo Sayer

Are you ever gonna change your mind
Will there ever be another time, woh, yeah
You gotta let me know
I was hoping you would understand
Love was never meant to be so blind, woh, woh
You gotta let me know
Well I never had to wonder why
I've felt this way now for such a long time
And it's taken everything I have
Just to tell you how it is, that I feel
Won't you let me know
Oh let me know
Ooh won't you let me know
We're no strangers to this world it's true
Everytime you cry it makes me feel so blue
Oh, won't you let me through
Take another time another place
Take this heart of mine and dry your face
Oh, won't you let me know

(solo)

Well I never had to wonder why
I've felt this way now for such a long time
And it's taken everything I have
Just to tell you how it is, that I feel
Won't you let me know
Won't you let me know
Ooh won't you let me know
Let me know, let me know, let me know
Take another time, another place
Take this heart of mine and dry your face, woh, woh, woh
Oh, won't you let me know
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah, won't you let me know
Oh, let me know
Let me know, let me know, let me know
