

Cheap Hotel

Leon Else

Baby I'm bad, God only knows
And you deserve more than the lover you chose
Cause you are all any man could want
But the dark in me I can't control, no

And it's not right, and it's not fair, I know, no
Cause you trust me when I'm not there, you don't know

I know it's fucked up but I'm living a lie
In the cheap hotel it's where I'm sleeping tonight
With someone I just met while the love of my life
Is at home probably wondering if I'm dead or alive

I turn my phone and my conscience off at the same time
In the morning I'ma tell her that my battery died
We were supposed to go to the cinema at nine
Now it's one and I bet she's going out of her mind
Ah...
Now it's one and I bet she's going out of her mind

In a cheap hotel with someone I just met
In a cheap hotel with someone I just met

I am ashamed, I'm a disgrace
As I look 'round this room
Empty bottles and clothes all over the place

I'm a liar, I'm a user, it's true, true
You would hate me if you knew what I do

I know it's fucked up but I'm living a lie
In the cheap hotel it's where I'm sleeping tonight
With someone I just met while the love of my life
Is at home probably wondering if I'm dead or alive

I turn my phone and my conscience off at the same time
In the morning I'ma tell her that my battery died
We were supposed to go to the cinema at nine
Now it's one and I bet she's going out of her mind
Ah...
Now it's one and I bet she's going out of her mind

In a cheap hotel with someone I just met
In a cheap hotel with someone I just met
