

SAFE PLACE

Leon Thomas III

Oh, ooh
Yeah, ah, yeah
Oh, yeah

And I know you wanna settle here
But I'm not trying to save face
You can stay a little bit
But this is not a safe place
Maybe if it was, then I'd say yes
But I'm not in the same place
Yesterday is dead and gone
You're a dollar and a day late
Ah

Settle down, even if it's just for now
Don't tell me your secrets, baby, let me figure it out
Let me see your demons, let me see you turn around
Know you're trouble, let me see what that's about
Oh, yeah

I've been numb for a minute, scum, wait a minute
Drunk for a minute, you want some?
Wait a minute, tongue for a minute
Cum for a minute, baby, come
You gon' have to run in a minute
I see the glass half empty when it's Remy
You don't do this, you said it already
I see the glass half empty when it's Henny
I'm from a different cloth, but you knew that already

I play with fire, like chef Benihana
Bet you die tryin', put that on my mama, I put that on my commas
Put that on my trauma
G63 for my future baby mama
Cut through the lane like horse in a big truck
Always send an Uber, I don't pick a bitch up
Die for my gang, I will never switch up
Before I go broke, I'ma need both my wrists cut
Say my name in light like you know me

Loud but I'm low key
G like Ginoble
Nigga so raw might give a nose bleed
If you can take from me
Go for it, and we gon' see
Oh

But I know you wanna settle here
But I'm not trying to save face
You can stay a little bit
But this is not a safe place
Maybe if it was, then I'd say yes
But I'm not in the same place
Yesterday is dead and gone
You're a dollar and a day late
Ah
