

Dancer

LÉON

I've been lost
Staring at the ceiling
Here it comes
Afraid I caught a feeling
And I fell so fast
And I was gone in my head
And it's cruel
Now I'm lost

And it's true
Now I'm riding high on a fever
It's you
Like a wave, it hits, I go deeper

You're the dancer in the dark
You're the beat in my heart
You're the evening sky
You're my mourning dove
And I drive around at night
Try to catch my breath
You're the tear in my eye
The pain in my chest

Oh, it's all washing over me
Oh, it's all washing
It's all washing over me

And I know
I'm somewhat scared of living
While others go
Blinded to the feeling
And I fell so fast
And I was gone in my head
Like a fool
But even so, oh

And it's true
Now I'm riding high on a fever
It's you
Like a wave, it hits, I go deeper

You're the dancer in the dark
You're the beat in my heart
You're the evening sky
You're my mourning dove
And I drive around at night
Try to catch my breath
You're the tear in my eye
The pain in my chest

Oh, it's all washing over me
Oh, it's all washing

And the sun sets
And it's all quiet
And I know it's too late not to turn around

So come meet me at the corner
All the things we don't say
Go and say now

Oh, it's all washing over me

You're the dancer in the dark
You're the beat in my heart
The pain in my chest

Oh, it's all washing over me
Oh, it's all washing
(Washing over me)
