

Smoking blues, sipping red
And I picture us inside my head, I
I dream onto a place
Where I'm having you all to myself
See you stand 'cross the floor
I keep waiting 'round, can't get out the door
It's getting late but I'm sure
If I stay a little longer, wait a little longer

Maybe you'll see that Stephanie
She's not for you, she's just someone
Taking you home, giving you some
Maybe someday you'll see

Ooh, there were all those times I left her off with you
If you knew how many times I turned into a fool over you
If you knew how many hours my mind spent on you
Yeah, I know it's crazy
I know it's crazy, I'm a fool for you, oh
I'm a fool for you

Sometimes late at night
Yeah, I pass your house, I see all the lights
Maybe clues shining bright
And I wonder who's staying for the night

When will you see that Stephanie
She's not for you, she's just someone
Taking you home, giving you some
Maybe someday you'll see

Oh, all those times I left her off with you, she
If you knew how many times I turned into a fool over you
If you knew how many hours my mind spent on you
Yeah, I know it's crazy
Yeah, I know it's crazy, I'm a fool for you
You, ooh-ooh-ooh, oh, oh, ooh-ooh
Fool for you, I, oh

Yeah, I know it's crazy
Yeah, I know it's crazy
I'm a fool for you
