Pretty Boy

LÉON

He said, "Come on!
What you waiting for?"
I think I'd waited a lifetime
Right up until that point

Uh-uh
Oh pretty boy (Pretty boy)
Who held the world in his hands
Swear I had gone anywhere, everywhere
To stay drunk on that face

Now we're strangers in a bar
Who'll be the first to go?
Time flies, a life unfolds
My reflection's saying different
But my memories don't feel old
I just wanna know

Hey, where you been all this time?
If the end is near, we'd better make it count
Thought I'd lost you back then in a different life
Oh, I knew it then and there you'd live forever
In my mind, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life
Oh my, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life

And so it goes
You can't outrun getting old
That hidden place where hope lives
Well, that's the last to go

Uh-uh
And so it goes (So it goes)
When nostalgia takes hold
And when you open the past up
You know I'd never say no

Now we're strangers in a bar
Who'll be the first to go?
Time flies, a life unfolds
My reflection's saying different
But my memories don't feel old
I just wanna know

Hey, where you been all this time?
If the end is near, we'd better make it count
Thought I'd lost you back then in a different life
Oh, I knew it then and there you'd live forever
In my mind, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life
Oh my, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life

So come on (Pretty boy)
What are you waiting for?
So come on (Pretty boy)

Oh, oh pretty boy
Ooh, ooh

Hey, where you been all this time?
If the end is near, we'd better make it count
Thought I'd lost you back then in a different life
Oh, I knew it then and there you'd live forever
In my mind, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life
Oh my, my mind, oh my mind
For all of my life, all my life
