

Boring Ideas

Leoniden

I warned you it might be quite hard to find the Metaphor

I warned you, now your title's turned to
"Pretentious fucking show"

Turn around your tenet
Yeah, turn around your tenet
It all stays the same and
Superficial statements
Your ideas are getting boring now

Oh, I can see too many feathers on your dresses
You're pretending it's your time to shine
And you can't quit, you just keep coming and coming
You gotta get it right, get it right, oh
I dare you, I double dare you to find a
Metaphor
Some treat opinions more like sneakers and jackets
As if they're seasonal, fucking seasonal

Turn around your tenet
Yeah, turn around your tenet
It all stays the same and
Superficial statements
Your ideas are getting boring now

Go ahead change your mind
You can do it all the time
Go ahead and change your mind
But please be kind
Go ahead change your mind
You can do it all the time
Go ahead and change your mind
But please be kind
Go ahead change your mind
You can do it all the time
Go ahead and change your mind
But please be kind

Turn around your tenet
Yeah, turn around your tenet
It all stays the same and
Superficial statements
Your ideas are getting boring now
Turn around your tenet
Yeah, turn around your tenet
It all stays the same and
Superficial statements
Boring now
