

Motion Blur

Leoniden

Give me a second, it's just a draft
Finding words to gain the upper hand
To talk about it, I'm just looking for some help

Cause I never was enough
Cause I can always be much better
It sounds ambitious when you're young
But how absurd if that's your dying breath

And this shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down
And this shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down

And I'm just trying to bridge the gap
It is between me and the things I said
You walked around them, looking for someone to help

Thanks but I never was enough
Cause I can always be much better
It sounds ambitious when you're young
But how absurd if that's your dying breath

This shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down
And this shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down

There is no end
No matter how far we get
Got no remorse
There are no eyes in your Shadow's Head
There's no escape
No matter how far we get

I never was enough
Cause I can always be much better
It sounds ambitious when you're young
But how absurd if that's your dying breath

Oh this shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down
And this shit stays the same wherever you are
We're hiding in motion blur
Slow down, slow down
We cannot slow down

Could you tie my ends together
