

Another Goodbye

Leony

Is this what love feels like?
I don't think I can take another goodbye

Lying awake in the night for all the wrong reasons Thought you're my happily-ever-after, now we're falling to pieces
They say it comes and it goes, but for us it's always heartbreak season
'Cause all I do at this point is counting the days till I see y a

Is this what love feels like?
If it breaks my heart every night
And we're apart, thousands of miles
I don't think I can take another goodbye

If that's the price that we pay, I don't think that we can afford it
We had it coming, but hey it felt good while we just ignored it
With all the tears that I cried when I thought of you
I could fill up the world's biggest swimming pool
A cut so deep that no one could prepare you for it

Is this what love feels like?
If it breaks my heart every night
And we're apart, thousands of miles
I don't think I can take another goodbye

Is this what love feels like?
If it breaks my heart every night
And we're apart, thousands of miles
I don't think I can take another goodbye
