Boots

Leony

Falling, I was falling by the wayside
Crashing, like a wave against the rock
I'm not gonna let no one change me
I'm not gonna fall into line
I don't wanna have someone else to tell me how to live my life

Going, I go up against the stream
Got no course but I stay close to myself
And I know that it won't be easy
But I think that it's worth a shot
You can talk me out of it again

No I ain't gon' stop myself from fighting for what I want
Sure it might be dangerous but I don't really care at all
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave, I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on

I ain't gon' lose myself and do what I've been told
No I won't be backing down, not tryna fit the mold
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on

You're wasting, yeah you're wasting words
Surrender, from now on I will spell the sands and tide
If breaking up with the old me means danger to my heart
I'm not gonna let someone else pave the way, I'm gonna walk

I've been fooled, haven't looked upon your face for too long
You can scream it loud and I'm out of my mind
You can talk me out of it again

No I ain't gon' stop myself from fighting for what I want
Sure it might be dangerous but I don't really care at all
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave, I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on

I ain't gon' lose myself and do what I've been told
No I won't be backing down, not tryna fit the mold
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on

Ooh, ooh
I'll be digging with my boots on
Ooh, ooh
I'll be staying true from now on
Ooh, ooh
I'll be digging with my boots on
Be digging with my boots on

No I ain't gon' stop myself from fighting for what I want
Sure, it might be dangerous but I don't really care at all
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave, I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on

I ain't gon' lose myself and do what I've been told
No I won't be backing down, not tryna fit the mold
'Cause if I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on
If I'm gonna dig my grave I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
I'll be digging it with my boots on
