Surrender

Leony

These lights are on, I know they stole my innocence
Our hearts they strike like lightning bolt into the wind
I feel your touch, my eyes they roll inside my head
I didn't think I would ever feel that love again

When we both lay down together
And I feel you take a hold
I'm losing all control
When we both lay down together
I'm losing all control, I feel myself

Surrender
Surrender
Surrender

I wave the flag, defenses down, I let you in
This feeling that you've given me, I'm into it
When we combine we intertwine, my skin, your skin
I know I should just let you go, your love is my sin

When we both lay down together
And I feel you take a hold
I'm loosing all control
When we both lay down together
I'm loosing all control, I feel myself

Surrender
Surrender
Surrender
Surrender
Surrender

These nights when I'm lonely
These nights when I make no sound
I want you to hold me
I need your love around
Hands up to the holy
Give in, let the words come down
You and you only
Can make me shout out loud

When we both lay down together
And I feel you take a hold
I'm loosing all control
When we both lay down together
I'm loosing all control, I feel myself

Surrender
Surrender
