

I Lose Hope

Leprous

At my peak
I turn weak
I end up losing hope

In my grief
A relief
I end up losing hope

At the dawn where I began
With a goal and a simple plan
Started walking towards this day

Seeking refuge for my soul
In this empire I control
Full of confidence I've made my way

On my path, a desire died
Getting bent and set aside
By the bitter fight to survive

Looking back on my every sin
Thinking of what could have been
I carry onward, feeling alive

Made it to where I am today
This is where I wanna stay
Still, I feel like, feel like I fade away

Feeling like it all falls down
Out of sync

In my mind
What I find
As I search every code
I lose hope

On my own
I atone
For the plan I once wrote
I lose hope

In my mind
What I find
As I search every code
I lose hope

On my own
I atone
For the plan I once wrote
I lose hope

Undermining the state I'm in
Losing hope when I'm bound to win
Taking cover to hide from shame

Getting lost with my disguise
Unable to open my eyes

Surrender a winning game
Fly away
Turn around
Stay

In my mind
What I find
As I search every code
I lose hope

On my own
I atone
For the plan I once wrote
I lose hope

In my mind
What I find
As I search every code
(I'm losing hope) I lose hope

On my own
I atone
For the plan I once wrote
(I'm losing hope) I lose hope

At my peak
I turn weak
I end up losing hope
