

Illuminate

Leprous

Your road is paved yet coloured in black
Concealed by the night, it remains
Undiscovered until the dawn
Hidden from the light, it remains
When night confines you
Take my torch

Illuminate
Your God might not rise
Light your way

Illuminate
No ray meets your eyes
Find your day

Moulded by the tide
Where your shelter lies
Covering your path
Invisible

The fire slowly died
Couldn't stop your cries
Hidden by your wrath
Invisible, invisible

Illuminate
Your God might not rise
Light your way
Illuminate
No ray meets your eyes
Find your day x2

Waiting for someone
Daring to see
Shades on your pathway
Leading to me
