

Running Low

Leprous

Get back up on your throne
Left you there all alone
I've been running, I've been running low

Take back all your glory
The never ending story
I've been running, I've been running low

Time to make amends
Make sure that it ends
I've been laying, I've been laying low

Settle your direction
Narrow your selection
I've been running, I've been running low

Come back, come back to celebrate it
Get back, get back the revelation
Sit back, sit back
Sit back!

How to look ahead
Remember when you fled
I've been running, I've been running low

The last step to make peace
Feeling the release
I've been running, I've been running low

I see where you belong
You can do no wrong
I've been laying, I've been laying low

I come back, come back to celebrate it
Get back, get back the revelation
Sit back, sit back
Oh, sit back, sit back

It's a miracle, miracle, miracle
And now it's livable, livable, livable
Miracle, miracle, miracle
Now it's livable, livable, livable
It's a miracle, miracle, miracle
Livable, livable, livable

I was never asked to stay
I wouldn't go away
I've been running, I've been running low

Living still with the shame
Didn't know who to blame
I've been running, I've been running low

And now, it's all up to you
To figure out what is true
I've been laying, I've been laying low

I come back, come back to celebrate it

Miracle, miracle, miracle
Oh, miracle, miracle, miracle
