

The Shadow Side

Leptous

Sitting on top, been on the rise again
Leaving the past, jumping on the right train
Breaking away from the dismay again
Letting it go, I didn't know it could be this way

Didn't we stop having this fight again
Time to rewind, time to revive this pain
Trying to find a simple life again
Letting it drop when I'm uninvolved

Letting go
Never know
Where I'll be derailed

When I leave
There's no way
I believe I will stay

I belong, I belong to the shadow side
But it's wrong, it's wrong to give in
I see love, I see love where it never was before
I see love, see love
I belong, I belong to the shadow side
But it's wrong, it's wrong to give in

Bringing me back from the obscure again
Time to connect to the secure again
Holding me up so that I won't, won't disappear again

Finally back, reaching a goal again
Taking my time, making me whole again
Saving a life, saving my soul again
And when I stop I will make sure that I'll stay

I was done for
I endured
In the end, that's all that matters

When I'm done
I'll be one
With myself

I belong, I belong to the shadow side
But it's wrong, it's wrong to give in
I see love, I see love where it never was before
I see love, I see love again

I belong, I belong to the shadow side
But it's wrong, but it's wrong to give in
I see love, I see love where it never was before
I see love, I see love again
