

Beige

Lera Lynn

It's all beige, I ignore
No surprises anymore
It's so dull, all the same
Monochrome in a frame
Break me open, stop me walking
Turn me upside down
Give me something to piece together
Turn my head around
Turn my head around
Turn my head around

Destroyer, come save me
Ruiner, ruin me
I wish you'd show me how
Destroyer set me free
Won't you set me free?

The deepest fear I hold so dear
Singing softly in my ear
Though I push for the color scheme
I'm another white in a sea of creams
Break me open, stop me walking
Turn me upside down
Give me something to piece together
Turn my head around
Turn my head around
Turn my head around

Destroyer, come save me
Ruiner, ruin me
I wish you'd show me how
Destroyer set me free
You know where my weakness rings
And you'll tear my little heart strings
I wish you'd show me how
Destroyer set me free
Won't you set me free?
