

Bridges

Leroy Sanchez

There were some things I'd never, I'd never do
I wouldn't put my heart through
Afraid to say forever might come unglued
Most things seem to

I used to hide from it all with the door closed
It was impossible, oh-oh
Would you stay? Would you go? Let me know
'Cause when you hold me close, that's when

You make me cross those bridges
When your lips touch all my flaws
Let your hands be the definition
Of the courage I've been missing all along
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges

You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges

Fell in love so easy, so deep for you
Usually things fall through
When nothing else I know completes me
The way you do, the way you knew

I used to hide from it all with the door closed
It was impossible, oh-oh
Would you stay? Would you go? Let me know
'Cause when you hold me close, that's when

You make me cross those bridges
When your lips touch all my flaws
Let your hands be the definition
Of the courage I've been missing all along
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges

You make me cross those bridges
When your lips touch all my flaws
Let your hands be the definition
Of the courage I've been missing all along
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
You make me cross those bridges, bridges, bridges
