

Short Fuse Burning

Less Than Jake

These are all the reasons why
I'll be exploding tonight
And why this chip on my shoulder feel like a mile wide
It's from the overwork, overtime compromise

So I'm looking tonight
For some piece of mind
Maybe then I'll find
Some strength inside
'Cause I've lost any hope of ever changing
I'm a short fuse burning

And remember who I
Who I used to be
Just this one trick pony's so strung out on routine
Stuck on repeat, like you wouldn't even believe

So I'm looking tonight
For some piece of mind
Maybe then I'll find
Some strength inside
'Cause I've lost any hope of ever changing
I'm a short fuse burning

Hey everybody don't forget me
Hey everybody don't forget me
I forgot who I used to be
And I'm a short fuse burning

I'm so close to exploding
