

Walking Pipebomb

Less Than Jake

Life is strange. What's it all about?
Voice in my head screaming
Get me out!
Nothing you can say to change my attitude
And please forget it, save your breath
You maintain I should fix my point of view
Stay in my lane
You don't gotta tell me to
Everything I do
It isn't good enough and
I can't help thinking this situation's
What keeps fueling my motivation

Whoa
So hard for me to let it go
I hit my limit just another minute more of this
I might end it all
So hard for me to let it go
I hit my limit just another minute more of this
Might end it all
Let myself explode

I'm no good at showing gratitude
Used to get along till someone started you Down that path. You're never coming back and I don't think you know which way it's gonna go
You maintain I should fix my point of view
Stay in my lane
You don't gotta tell me to
Everything I do
It isn't good enough and
I can't help thinking this situation's
What keeps fueling my motivation

Whoa
So hard for me to let it go
I hit my limit just another minute more of this
I might end it all
So hard for me to let it go
I hit my limit just another minute more of this
Might end it all

Feeling like a walking pipe bomb for so long
(But you already know)
Feeling like a waking pipe bomb for so long
But you already know
I got a limit
Can't take a minute more of this

Whoa
So hard for me to let it go
I hit my limit just another minute more of this
I might end it all
Gotta Let it go, let it go, let it go
Cause just another minute more of this
Might end it all
Let myself explode
