

Anxiety

Letdown.

Maybe it's my broken bones
My broken home
I get so close then I choke
Scared to get back on my feet
Cause the panic is causing my legs to feel numb
I talked to the heathen inside of me
Why he's so cold to me
Breathing it's hard to breathe
Why can't I fall asleep
I'm not your enemy
He's not a friend to me
He's not the best of me
He's just the rest of me

Hate them but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this

Tell me am I going crazy
Tell me am I going crazy
Anxiety, anxiety, anxiety
Is running me, running me, running me down

I'm just addicted to pain
All in my brain
Maybe I'm going insane
I'm just a product of everything I ever wanted
But I'm in my way
I talked to the demon inside of me
Why does he bother me
Thinking it's hard to think
Still never fall asleep
He's not my enemy
I'm not a friend to me
I'm not the best of me
I'm just the rest of me

Hate them but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this
No I hate them, but I like this

Tell me am I going crazy
Tell me am I going crazy
Anxiety, anxiety, anxiety
Is running me, running me, running me down

Hate them but I like this
No, I hate me when I'm like this
No why can't I just fight this
No they hate me but I like them
No, I hate me when I'm like this
No they hate me but they're running me down

Running me down
Running me down

Tell me am I going crazy
Tell me am I going crazy
