

Be OK

Letdown.

Parked outside for hours
Holding on to flowers
I've left on my counter
For over 3 weeks now
And I'm rolling like a stone through
A day that's never over
Hope the windows open
When I come stumbling home

So, I swallow my pride
And I put my car in drive

I never thought that I'd be okay
I never thought I miss you this way
Driving 16 hours at 1:05
Just to say goodnight
'Cause there might not be a next time

Flying down the back roads
Dodging all the shadows
Passing evil places
That I've already been
And don't wanna go again

So I swallow my pride
Swear I'm different this time

I never thought that I'd be okay
I never thought I miss you this way
Driving 16 hours at 1:05
Just to say goodnight
'Cause there might not be a next time

Standing here on your porch
And you unlock the door
And she said
I never thought I'd see you this way
I never thought that you'd be okay

I never thought that I'd be okay
I never thought I miss you this way
Driving 16 hours at 1:05
Just to say goodnight
'Cause there might not be a next time
