

Evil

Letdown.

Maybe I'm just out of touch
Don't let 'em say too much
Maybe I'm a broken man
Maybe I'm just just out of luck
Tell me what they want from me
Tell me what they wanna see
I'll show you everything
The voices calling me

Over and over again
That's when the rain came
Over and over again
That's when the pain came
Over and over again
That's when the hate came
That's when the rage came

(They always knew)

I'm not a hero
I'm a devil not a saint
My word is lethal
You be Abel I'll be Cain
They call me evil
When your life is just a game
Save your breath
Evil is just a name

You'll always bite the apple
Over the talk about it
Open the book and tell me
Life is what you thought about it
Always the sinner, the saint
The next dinner in vein
Our heads swimming
And our last words breathing in

Over and over again
That's when the rain came
Over and over again
That's when the pain came
Over and over again
That's when the hate came
That's when the rage came

I'm not a hero
I'm a devil not a saint
My word is lethal
You be Abel I'll be Cain
They call me evil
When your life is just a game
Evil

Forgive me, my mother
Forgive me, my father
Forgive me, my brother

For I know not what I do

Forgive me, my mother
Forgive me, my father
Forgive me, my brother
For I know not what I do

I'm not a hero
My word is lethal
They call me evil
Evil (is just a...)

I'm not a hero
My word is lethal
They call me evil
