

Karma

Letdown.

I'm not
Time is wasting
I've got
Life I'm faking
I'm not
Here to be held down

She's a little lover
And my armour
Is the fire in my soul
From living in the water
With my father
And my world turns to gold

But I'm not fading
No one can save me
Never let a lady faze me
She won't save my soul
She's a lover a fighter
I swear to god on my mamma
So paranoid I keep running
And when I'm tripping that's karma
She's just a natural disaster
She's sinking faster and faster
My words still haunt me
I can't save my soul

And I'm a little farther
And I've got here
Just right where I want
I'm living for the moment
Where my love went
And I'll die where I want

But I'm not fading
No one can save me
Never let a lady faze me
She won't save my soul
She's a lover a fighter I swear to god on my mamma
So paranoid I keep running
And when I'm tripping that's karma
She's just a natural disaster
Sinking faster and faster
My words still haunt me
I can't save my

It's a hive mind making all my paces
It's a love worth breaking I won't save it
If it's a heart worth taking I won't leave at all
If I die won't be alive to see it
If I live won't be the one who needs it
But I know I'd sell my soul to risk it all

But I'm not free
This life is killing me
With its empty little dreams
But I'd risk it all

It's a hive mind making all my paces
If it's a heart worth taking I won't leave at all
She's a lover a fighter I swear to god on my mamma
So paranoid I keep running
My words still haunt me
I can't save my
If I die won't be alive to see it
If I live won't be the one who needs it
But I know I'd sell my soul to risk
And my words still haunt me
