

Now

Lethal

Now that I've given the ransom you've asked
Now that I've completed your every task
I lie waiting for nowhere

I have no religion removing my mask
Naked, disfigured my reach past my grasp
I lie waiting for nowhere

Look in my eyes
The truth was never too far away

Had a last chance
Now it's gone
Had an answer
Now it's wrong

You had to have that killing instinct
You had to have that winning attitude
And now you come around
With your new convincing smile
Firm handshake, a talent for denial

Who are you now
Where are you now
It's all just a play
