Stop loving this man, you cannot decency won't understand, start fucking

This boy, just remember who fucked first

I can carry the weight of the world, I bench press counties
If cancer scared for 19 years then parenthesis is where I'll put you

Either way you can't erase me
Either way you can't erase me
Either way you can't erase me
Either way you can't erase me

I can, I can carry, arms are optional, this is all I can afford and this what you sell,
Are you ready for me? him? we?

...so we'll fake love much love
Much like the lovers do it's apparent we're the greatest of two
As a muse you're assigned to people not province.
