

Bruised

Letters From The Fire

I know you're tryin' to save me
But I'm already bruised
I know you're tryin' to save me
(Save me)
But I'm already bruised

For a month
It had been like this
Not a note, not a kiss
So long
We've been drowning here
No S.O.S. appeared

I know you're trying to save me
From falling over you
I know you're trying to save me
(Save me)
But I'm already bruised

If the worst part
Is the best that you've got
Then I'll take it
I'll take it
If you're haunted
By all that you're not
Then I'll show you
I'll show you just who you are

Every night
I can see the change
Just a glance, then you're on your way
So cold
Cold November sky
You're drowning in the night
(The night)

I know you're trying to save me
From falling over you
I know you're trying to save me
(Save me)
But I'm already bruised

If the worst part
Is the best that you've got
Then I'll take it
I'll take it
If you're haunted
By all that you're not
Then I'll show you
I'll show you just who you are

I know you're trying to save me
From falling over you
(Save me)
But I'm already bruised

If the worst part
Then I'll take it
I'll take it

If the worst part
Then I'll take it
I'll take it
By all that you're not
Then I'll show you
I'll show you just who you are

And we'll drown together
In this cold November sky
By all that you're not
Then I'll show you

I'll show you
