

Control

Letters From The Fire

You control my senses
You control my mind
You're a maze I can't escape
An answer I can't find

Paranoia eats away at me
From the inside
Like a parasite
It thrives while I die

Down
You've taken me over
So down
You're pulling me under

Your innocence intoxicates me
Drives me crazy
It's consuming everything
The blinding madness suffocates me
The only peace I'll find's
In the arms of insanity

You control my body
You control my soul
You're the incubus
To you I'm just disposable

Holding onto you's like quicksand
That drags me down
The more I fight for you
The faster I drown

Down
You've taken me over
So down
You're pulling me under

Your innocence intoxicates me
Drives me crazy
It's consuming everything
The blinding madness suffocates me
The only peace I'll find's
In the arms of insanity

You're all I need
To keep me sane

Your innocence intoxicates me
The only peace I'll find's
In the arms of insanity

You're innocence intoxicates me
Drives me crazy
It's consuming everything
The blinding madness suffocates me
The only peace I'll find's
