

I Hate Everything

Letters From The Fire

La, la, la, I don't wanna hear anything
Ah, ah, ah, I don't wanna be anywhere
Please just let me sit out here in my own hell
Don't ask why, sometimes I just hate everything
Sometimes I just hate everyone

When I'm done my [?]
All my fears, my imperfection
And every time I let you go
And every time I think where I'm from
I can't get rid of this town's affliction
It's coming back to life when I'm with you

Blah, blah, blah, I'm so fucking bored with myself
I, I, I'd, give my life to be someone else
Now there's nothing, nothing no one can do
Strengthening you, strengthening you
Don't know why, sometimes I just hate everything
Sometimes I just hate everyone

When I'm done my [?]
All my fears, my imperfection
And every time I let you go
And every time I think where I'm from
I can't get rid of this town's affliction
It's coming back to life when I'm with you
When I'm with you
When I'm with you
When I'm with you
When I'm with you

Sometimes I just, sometimes I...
Sometimes I just, sometimes I just hate everything

When I'm done my [?]
All my fears, my imperfection
And every time I let you go
And every time I think where I'm from
I can't get rid of this town's affliction
It's coming back to life when I'm with you
