

Scream

Letters From The Fire

What you will message
What you are gonna leave behind
Searching [?]
Tell me you are, are you alive

Is this who you wanna be?
Who you want me to see?
Who are you?

I wanna hear you scream your life into my face
I'm begging you please wake up 'cause I can't wait
To see who you are, to know how you feel
I wanna hear you scream!

What you're hiding
What you're so afraid to find
She can't deny, I'm already too up inside

Is this who you wanna be?
Who you want me to see?
Who are you?

I wanna hear you scream your life into my face
I'm begging you please wake up 'cause I can't wait
To see who you are, to know how you feel
I wanna hear you scream!

Write your message on the pavement
Covered with ink on your skin
What makes it your will, I'm gonna stop
Don't let anyone come in between

I wanna hear you scream your life into my face
I'm begging you please wake up 'cause I can't wait

I wanna hear you scream your life into my face
I'm begging you please wake up 'cause I can't wait
To see who you are, to know how you feel
I wanna hear you scream!
I wanna hear you scream!
