

Wandering Star

Level

Please could you stay awhile and share my grief
It's such a lovely day have to always feel this way
And time that I will suffer less
Is when I never have to wait

Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever
Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever

Those who have seen the needles I now shed
Like a husk from much all that was now has fled
And the masks that the monsters wear
See upon their prey

Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever
Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever

Come on up inside take awhile
Just to just to share my grief
Just to just to share my grief
I'm doubled out inside taunted and cruel so cruel

Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever
Wandering stars oh for whom it is reserved
The blackness of darkness forever

Wandering stars oh wandering stars oh
Wandering stars oh wandering stars oh
