

FOREVER

Leven Kali

Sun shines through my window pane
But it feels like rain
When you're gone
No one can replace you babe
Don't feel the same
When you're gone

Now everybody calls my name but
I don't ever feel the same when you do
When you do
And I don't wanna count the days but
No one else can stop the pain like you do
Like you do, so

Give me a reason why I should hold on
And I'll wait forever
I'll wait forever
Everyone tells me that I should move on
To find something better
But I'll wait forever

And I'll be right there where you left me darling
Standing in an open door
And I'mma love you like the first time baby
Cause somethings in life worth waiting for
Oh oh oh
Now
Now everybody calls my name but
I don't ever feel the same when you do
When you do
And I don't wanna count the days but
No one else can stop the pain like you do
Like you do so

Give me a reason why I should hold on
And I'll wait forever
I'll wait forever
Everyone tells me that I should move on
And find something better
But I'll wait forever

To be with you
I'll wait forever
To be with you yeah
To be with you
I'll wait forever
To be with you
Oh oh yeah

Oh oh
Now I would wait forever for you baby
Oh Oh yeah
No no no no no no no no
Ohhhh
