

PERFECT IS BORING

Leven Kali

I need something more
Than the same thing every morning
Just can't go for it
Perfect is boring
I need a freak
Just like me

Yeah yeah
I need something more than the same thing every morning
Just can't go for it
Perfect is boring
I need a freak (freak), just like me (just like me)
I need, I need
Yeah

I need something more
Than the same thing every morning
Just can't go for it
Perfect is boring
I need a freak (freak), just like me (like me)
That's what's important
Perfect is boring

Yeah
I see those blessings you count in perfection
Sexual tension that I can't explain
I want it bad
Only thing I do know is when you get mad
Best that I had
When you on the floor ain't no holding it back
Would everything change if I made you my main
Bought you Cartier bracelets, engraved with your name
Would you misbehave if I put you in chains
And tied you to the bedpost and broke down that frame

I need something more than the same thing every morning
Just can't go for it
Perfect is boring
I need a freak (I need a freak), just like me (just like me)
That's what's important
Perfect is boring
