

Let It Roll

Lewis Capaldi

Where'd you get to? Where'd you go?
I been so low since you left
Wish you kept leading me on

Tried to reach you, tried to call
I bang my head against your door
But there ain't nobody home

And if you want to stay lost awhile
I'll rearrange the road I take
And meet you out in the wild
And if you want, we can wait behind
We could find a place to hide
Maybe I could change your mind

So, I'm holding out for something more
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone
Weigh down heavy like you did before
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone

Let it roll, let it roll, let it roll again
Let it roll, let it roll, let me hold your heart of stone

If you think you might feel the same
I'll be right here where we left off
Same old story, same old place

I won't wander, I won't let go
'Cause there's more life in my bones
Than you give me credit for

And if you want to stay lost awhile
I'll rearrange the road I take
And meet you out in the wild
And if you want, we can wait behind
We could find a place to hide
Maybe I could change your mind

So, I'm holding out for something more
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone
Weigh down heavy like you did before
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone

Let it roll, let it roll, let it roll again
Let it roll, let it roll, let it roll again

You don't need to lose control
I just wanna let you know
I'm holding on to make you whole
Don't let go, don't let go

You don't need to lose control
I just wanna let you know
I'm holding on to make you whole
Don't let go, don't let go

You don't need to lose control

I just wanna let you know
I'm holding on to make you whole
Don't let go, don't let go

I'm holding out for something more
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone
Weigh down heavy like you did before
Let me hold your rolling heart of stone

Let it roll, let it roll, let it roll again
Let it roll, let it roll, let me hold your heart of stone
Weigh down heavy like you did before
Let it roll, let it roll, let me hold your heart of stone
