

Old Navy Blue

Lewis Capaldi

Cut my teeth on memories
From playgrounds to the bars
There's bigger boys with broken hearts
Who throw their weight around
Settle down and be here now
Just watch the world revolve
Don't it feel so good to be so small?

Cast my mind behind and think of girls I used to know
Who've all moved on to better things and found the ones they love
But it don't breed animosity, I'm not perturbed at all
Oh man it feels so good to feel so small

Well it's sad but sometimes it's true
That your friends become the people you knew
Once upon a time, that you left behind
Old navy blue

No matter though how good things go they've always got to wait
I've said goodbye to family from the side of their sick beds
So to all the ones I'll always love but faded out of view
Until we meet again, this ones for you

Well it's sad, but sometimes it's true
That your friends become the people you knew
Once upon a time, that you left behind
Old navy blue

Ain't it sad, the things that you'll miss
When you're gone and the world it still spins
'cos you're not here to stay
So just be here today
Old navy blue

But after all this time
You're still a friend of mine
