

bolt from the blue

Lewis Watson

Shrug these dirty clothes off me
Another morning with an ache in my head
Drinking yesterday's coffee
Hoping that it gets me out of bed

So call me stupid, but I'm feeling okay
Myself and cupid have gone separate ways

Then out of nothing
I can feel myself loving you
Lightning struck me
You're the bolt coming out the blue
I guess this changes my plans
It's out of my hands, now it's just us two
Lightning struck me
A million volts from you

It all went down in slow motion
As soon as you came into view
Caught in your trap, I was frozen
Couldn't take my eyes off of you

So call me stupid, but I've got second thoughts
Myself and cupid, we should call our deal off

'Cause out of nothing
I can feel myself loving you
Lightning struck me
You're the bolt coming out the blue
I guess this changes my plans
It's out of my hands, now it's just us two
'Cause lightning struck me
A million volts from you

I bet you are a heartbreaker
But I'll risk it 'cause a heart needs love
I've got a second wind, won't you let me in Even though you are a heartbreaker

'Cause out of nothing
I can feel myself loving you
Lightning struck me
You're the bolt coming out the blue
I guess this changes my plans
It's out of my hands, now it's just us two
'Cause lightning struck me
A million volts from you
A million volts from you
