echoes

Lewis Watson

It's the worn out words
The cold goodbyes
Must've broken our hearts a hundred times and I
And I don't know why
It's the rush we felt
Those heavy sighs
Now our bed is cold and we're breathing slow tonight
And I don't know why

Cause we're the worst
And we're the best
But I don't want nobody else
I could find some fairer weather
But no one else could love like you

When I'm tired of all the echoes in my head
I surrender yesterday
Cause all our tomorrows
Lead the way
When I'm lost and want to let go
You are there
Take me to another place
Where all our tomorrows
Lead the way

It's your worn out shoes
Left in the hall
How I still smile every time you call and I
I don't know why
It's the streetlight glow
Across your face
Your hand on mine
As we drive home at night
And I don't know why

Cause we're the worst
And we're the best
But you don't want nobody else
You could find somebody better
But no one else can love like me

When I'm tired of all the echoes in my head
I'll surrender yesterday
Cause all our tomorrows
Lead the way
When I'm lost and want to let go
You are there
Take me to another place
Where all our tomorrows

Let them
Let them lead the way

Let them

Let them

You lead the way

When I'm tired of all the echoes in my head
Lead the way

When I'm tired of all the echoes in my head
Lead the way
You are there
Lead the way

Let them

Let them

Let them

You lead the way
