

is it love at all?

Lewis Watson

No sleep, another night
Lonely by your side
Tried to call you, no reply
Am I crossed out?
Or do I cross your mind?
Your mind

I'm on my knees
But you retreat when I'm vulnerable
If you leave when I'm weak
Is it love at all?
At all

Can't breathe, losing hope
Too deep, overgrown
Door creaks, but it's just your ghost
Guess I'll admit defeat
Now I'm on my own
My own

I'm on my knees
But you retreat when I'm vulnerable
If you leave when I'm weak
Is it love at all?

Why can't I see
That you don't need me here anymore?
'Cause if you leave when I'm weak
Is it love at all?
At all
