

Why am I in your garden
At 3AM this morning?
Since we've been apart I've Missed not having you around
But I'm hoping that you'll wake up now
Then I can explain

Look how far we've drifted
We had something different
I wish that you were listening
I'd tell you that I've got no doubts
If only you could hear me now
Then I would explain

That all I ever wanted
Was to hold you in my trembling arms
That's all I really wanted
My God, we had an incredible spark

When summer came in April
In between the rainfall
I held you and we stayed for
Hours and we knew what we'd found
There were things we never said out loud
So let me explain

That all I ever wanted
Was to hold you in my trembling arms
That's all I really wanted
My God, we had an incredible spark

I've never forgotten
No, not to this day
There's always been something between you and me
Throwing stones at your window
Can I see your face for a moment?
I just need a moment

That's all I ever wanted
Was to hold you in my trembling arms
That's all I really wanted
Oh my God, just to rekindle that incredible spark
Please don't leave me out in the dark
'Cause we had an incredible spark
