

Delusional

Lexa Gates

Never thought it'd be so easy
To fall in love
But when you smile I feel the difference
In your touch

Now, why the fuck would I give you a hug?
How the fuck you gon' get in my face
And then turn around and tell your friends I'm a dub?
How the fuck are you still in my place?
Man, I'm playing myself at this point, this ain't love
But I keep coming back 'cause I can't turn my back on you
Baby, you know you the one, aw

Shit, got me sick (Yeah)
I'll do anything for that dick
You tryna leave and I'll up this blick
Bitch, sit
Sit your stupid ass right there
Run your fingers through my hair
You ain't gotta say shit 'cause I know you care
Aw, yeah (Ayy)
He say I'm delusional
His love make me lose control
You know I'm your favorite ho, right? (Right?)
Look at me right in my eyes
You are the one I despise
I just wanna grip on your thighs, ugh (Yeah)
So you really don't want me no more?
So you're really just throwing me out on the street
And leaving all my shit on the floor?
When it's cold as a bitch out here and my Lyft not coming
That shit got me livid
After all the bullshit that we been through
I should've just left before

Yeah, you were the one that started it
Now you got me here looking retarded
I walk right in, you get carded
You a bum, I'm an artist
Watch yourself, let's be honest
So he see me outside and he tryna get close

Now, why the fuck would I give you a hug?
How the fuck you gon' get in my face
And then turn around and tell your friends I'm a dub?
How the fuck are you still in my place?
Man, I'm playing myself at this point, this ain't love
But I keep coming back 'cause I can't turn my back on you
Baby, aw

Why the fuck would I give you a hug?
Huh?
I'm delusional, right?
I'm delusional
