Can you remember the rain?
Can you remember the rain?

Let me get it off of my chest
I wish the best for everything you are
And everyone that's around you anywhere you that go
It's a shame I that couldn't be all that you thought of me
'Cause maybe you actually deserve a lot more
I can't believe I let you down again
And when I get another chance, I will never (Never ever)
Baby, let me change for the better
You know this pussy be wetter than that last hoes was
Sipped a little Henny, I'll admit I'm buzzed
And more in love with you every day
It's every way that you do what you do, don't you ever change (Don't)
You are nothing like the lames I had known before (No)
Got me looking at the kids in the grocery store different
Like maybe we could have a life like that
In a house with a picket fence and a hairless cat
Or a dog, but probably just a frog 'cause pets be OD
And with the fucking kids, we'd already have a handful
For example, they'd definitely be spilling shit everywhere
And throwing my underwear out the window (Window)
We both know how that shit go (Shit go)
And things change like the wind blow (Blow)
It do that shit for sure
So let me say this now before I lose my chance to say it

I wanna be with you, yeah, I do (We used to play out in the rain)
I'm that I put you through it twice, lil' baby
Thought you would've known it when we met (I'm crazy)
Know I could do better, but I don't (Ayy)
I wanna be with you, yeah, I do
Sorry that I put you through it twice (Lil' baby)
Thought you would've known it when we met (Met, I'm crazy)
Know I could do better, but I don't, I'm lazy

Should I throw it all away now or wait until you do it to me first?
It hurts to think that my life is in your hands
But that's what I signed up for when I told you I was down
I guess that I was wrong for thinking you would stick around
And every day, I think about it right when I wake up
I put that on my mama and whatever's in this cup
I'm stuck hoping that you don't ever walk away from me
But if that's what'll happen, that's the way it's got to be (Oh)
Do you even care?
Are you gonna be there when I need it?
Be there when I'm bleeding?
You have seen a lot
Don't think I forgot
You ain't do a bad job
Tryna pick up all the pieces of me last time
I was wondering if that would be the last time
Sometimes I could read your mind and it blows mine, yo
Don't you fuckin' go
Put the fucking bag down, I know (Yeah)

I wanna be with you, yeah, I do
Sorry that I put you through it twice (Lil' baby)
Thought you would've known it when we met (I'm crazy)
Know I could do better, but I don't (I'm lazy)
I wanna be with you, yeah, I do
Sorry that I put you through it twice (Lil' baby)
Thought you would've known it when we met (Met, I'm crazy)
Know I could do better, but I don't, I'm lazy

Those days went by so fast
I've got remarks that torn us all apart (Ooh)
I'm still trying to put back the pieces to my heart (Heart, heart)

Everybody's lookin' at me weirdly
Mirroring my mannerisms
Making me feeing like a product when I'm truly not for sale
And my eyes are getting weary, every word leads to a drop
Is my heart made out of glass and mentality frail?
Can we make a secret here?
Baby, promise you won't tell
Just console me on my fears
Eat it good and wish me well
Bend me over, bite an ear
Let it die, yeah, give him hell
Thought about you and of love
But it didn't ring a bell

Can you remember the rain?
Can you remember the rain?
