

Run

Lexa Gates

You don't even want me no more (No, no)
We ain't even friends since you've been fucking with that whore
(No)

I want you boy, I do
I would give you everything I am, yeah
And she ain't even half of me, no (No)
Looks like you have made up your mind
Don't come looking for me, you won't find me
You're just another fucking waste of my time
Don't come looking for me, you won't find me

And I'd just run away anyway
I'd just run (I'd run)
I'd just run away anyway
I'd just run
I'd just run away anyway
I'd just run (I would run)
Run, run
