

Silence (Intro)

Lexa Gates

Alright, so tell me what you was talking about when we was outside

Yeah, what the fuck was you talking about?

I don't know, I'm not gonna get involved

He had me looking stupid

You are not my fuckin father

Who the fuck are you talking to?

I was just tryna match

Silence

A life of solitude

Is it wrong to belong on my own? (Huh? Is that so bad?)

Out of place when I'm not home alone

Should I savor this silence?

Yeah, they talk and they talk and I hear

With a wish that I could disappear

Be at home on my own, all alone

And just sit in that silence
