

Mind Reader

Lexie Liu

I, I'm riding through the night
Like falling from the sky
You might not remember back then when I could still
Slow down to read your mind
If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more
Slow down to read your mind
If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more

Imma pull up just so you can
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya

But it seems you don't need me to be so distant
Fair enough, I just needed you to listen
Sometimes you're just running thin your patience
You don't wanna know
Sometimes when I'm getting low you're just staring at your phone tho
When I could still
Slow down to read your mind
If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more
Slow down to read your mind
If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more

I'ma pull up just so you can
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya

Talk to me
Talk to me, baby
Let me know what's on your mind
Hope I don't intrude it
Your mind could be so much clearer

Slow down to read your mind
If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more
Slow down to read your mind

If I got time
I'ma give it one try, no more

I'ma pull up just so you can
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya
Blame it all on me, yeah
Blame it all on me, yeah
'Bout your mind, mind reader
'Cause your mind, I can't see it
I can't read it for ya
