

Da-da-da-da, da-da-da

It always goes like
3 AM, two drinks, one text
Lights off, I can't pretend
I'm not thinking 'bout it
Say I'm tired, I ditch my friends
You know what's next
All bets out the window
When it's late night, late night
I only want you when it's late night
On some late night, oh-oh, oh-oh

Now if you wanna you can send me your location
Stop asking questions, you don't need an explanation
Don't make me second-guess it, you're the second bestest
But if you text me first, I'll take the validation

I'll let you fill the void, void
Like ballerina, I'm on point, point
It wasn't for you but enjoy, enjoy
It'd be a misdemeanor if no one gets to see her
I'm just saying one more glass of wine
And I might cross the line

It always goes like
3 AM, two drinks, one text
Lights off, I can't pretend
I'm not thinking 'bout it
Say I'm tired, I ditch my friends
You know what's next
All bets out the window
When it's late night, late night
I only want you when it's late night
On some late night, oh-oh, oh-oh

Uber driver step on the gas
City lights, watchin' 'em pass
Ridin' highs, up at all hours
Fever dream ends when I crash (Ah!)
Book a five-star power trip
For the fucked up fun of it
I'll remember none of it

'Cause you're my favorite petty crime, crime
Now won't you come and do your time, time (Time)
No, I won't ever call you mine, mine
But at this time of night
I might just change my mind

It always goes like
3 AM, two drinks, one text
Lights off, I can't pretend
I'm not thinking 'bout it (Thinking 'bout it)
Say I'm tired, I ditch my friends (Ah)
You know what's next
All bets out the window

When it's late night, late night (Ooh)
I only want you when it's late night (I only want you)
On some late night, oh-oh, oh-oh
