

Unlikely

Leyla Blue

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely

I got a hundred
Boys in my phone I could call if I wanted
How bad do you want it?
Show me don't tell me
Now end of discussion

I'll call your bluffing
All of your rumors
Call me your forever
Or call me an Uber

Oh I
Keep you on your toes
Bringing guns to knife fights
Gripped tight
Hands up on my waist
Now pull me close

Take me into your arms
In the back of your car
Shoot your shot in the dark

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely

Pleasure and pain
Summer and rain
Make no mistake
Hard work, hard play

Forget the past
Baby step on the gas
Love when I drive you out of your mind, mind, mind

Oh I
I keep you on your toes

Bringing guns to knife fights
Gripped tight
Know you'd be a fool to let me go

Take me into your arms
Let's just be where are
Find the light in the dark

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely

Blood blue in your veins like an IV
Honestly if I were you I would wife me
You could find someone better, someone like me
But it's unlikely
It's un it's unlikely
