Cocoa butter
Is just like concrete next to your soft smile
Can't think of another
Do I want u or do I just want your sunbeam style

Cocoa butter
Spiderweb softness that cannot be mine
While I st-st-stutter
You're as cool as ice cream and it's so divine

And it's making me suffer
Cause I can't get enough of the silk on my skin when you speak
And if you discovered
How I think of you my love id be so weak

Cocoa butter
Is just like concrete next to your soft smile
Can't think of another
Do I want u or do I just want your sunbeam style
Woah
