

I'm No Gold

Liars

I, I'm a waste
And you're gold
I'm not clear why you're here, but you're here
I, I'm a waste. I'm no gold I'm no gold I'm no gold, I'm just lead
You were right

Time that you clear out my clothes and my world I'm insane
I would do the same
You can clear out your heart, I'm unknown to you all it sounds better
Take my word

I poured out pistols to the antlered, all the reindeer, I will kill them all
It goes from this spark to the embers, when the rains came, so the flame goes
You've gotta distort to remember, you might like it, get irregular. Too far out
I'm gonna burn you to a cinder, when the rain comes, lay in ashes

Yours
