

Scissor

Liars

I found her
With my scissor
This heart fell
To the ground

I'm supposed to save you now
But my hands are flipping out
I'm a coward in a self-built army
I leave this blood to dry

I leave this blood to dry

I dragged her body to the parking lot
I tried to find her
A savior right there amongst the cars

Just then I
Began to quiver
When I saw her
Blinking eye
She was alive
And she's breathing
Alive
