

My lover, my baby
He makes me forget about the troubles I'm facing
I'm on a vacation
And I feel alive when I am holding his body
But what about when he gets angry
There is no limit to what he can do do do, do do
And I know his smile is charming
But something in his eyes makes me blue, oh yeah

I cuddle with a demon in my bed
When morning comes my angel reappears and says
"Good morning, my darling", and touches me softly
But I know the moon will soon be here

Ye ye ye, ye ye ye
Ye ye ye, ye ye ye
Ahhhhh, ahhhh
Ye ye ye, ye ye ye

Dissociation and Fenty is the way I keep my sanity
This is not my home, this is not a home
I button up his shirt in the morning
Pick up his meds and cook him something
When he comes home he forces himself on me
I will die before I tell anyone (Ahhh)
There's a reason why I'm always alone (Ahhh)
I don't wanna face the truth that I tell myself these lies
That everything will be well, so I keep it to myself

But what is love if I cuddle with a demon in my bed
When morning comes my angel reappears and says
"Good morning, my darling", and touches me softly
But I know the moon will soon be here

Ye ye ye, ye ye ye (Oh, he be my demon)
Ye ye ye, ye ye ye (Oh, he be my demon)
Ahhhhh, ahhhh
Ye ye ye, ye ye ye

I cuddle with, I cuddle with
Come and save me, come and save me
I cuddle with, I cuddle with
Come and save me, come and save me
