Lich King

US Special Forces
Head into the jungle
Hostages trapped
Rescue the friendlies, eliminate hostiles

Watcher above
Cloaked and unseen
Infra-red vision
Stalking the hunted and poised to attack

Skinned and hanging all the soldiers are dead
Dog tags are steeping in blood
Guerrilla post is found and the battle is led Bullets rain down in a flood

Something is seen in the midst of the trees
Anna runs and Hawkins gives chase
The jungle comes alive and the soldier is seized
Disappears again with no trace

As they search for the body
Jesse Ventura
Struck by a laser
Dead on the ground and the creature approaches

Mac to the rescue
He sees the monster
Mind starts to break
Transparent enemy with luminous eyes

Machine gun fire cuts the foliage up
Minigun is humming at speed
Trap is set and something is cut
Wild boar distraction succeeds

Hunting the thing Mac and Dillon pursue
I'm gonna have me some fun
Mac's head is blasted apart into goo
Apollo Creed's arm's off, he's done

Time to bleed

Billy, Poncho, Anna, Dutch are all that remain
Get to the chopper and try to escape the insane

Billy makes a stand and Dutch takes a dive
Barely escaping, barely staying alive

You can not see me
Earth is my armor
You hear me, war cry

Calling you out
You will not find me
Easy to deal with
You will not find me
Easy to kill
